WUNDIG WER WILURA Wesfarmers Arts Commission By Gina Williams and Guy Ghouse

Running Time: 90 minutes (no interval)

Wundig wer Wilura (Wundig and Wilura) is an ancient Noongar story of star-crossed lovers, who break the bounds of lore and custom, and have their souls forever banished to Mount Brown (Wongborel) and Mount Bakewell (Walwalling) in York, Western Australia.

Family and connection to country, obligation and rebellion, adoration and betrayal, love and war. In the face of catastrophic consequences, how far would you go for love?

Suitable for ages 8+

This work can be presented in a number of variations bespoke to your community and venue capability inclusive of indoor and outdoor locations

Technical specifications and associated touring costs are available on request from West Australian Opera
