

THE LIPS

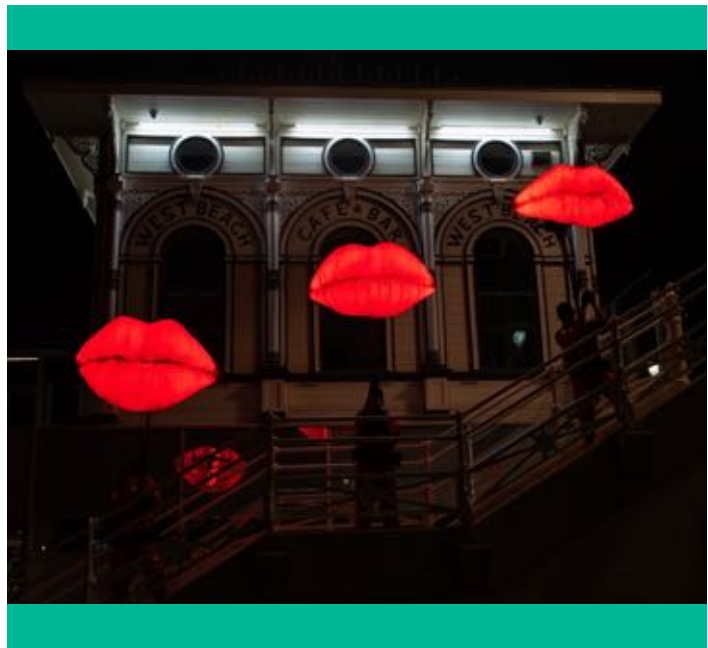

Walkabout Show

The Lips are a chorus of delightfully deviant big puppet divas whose mouths have broken free from their bodies!

“The Lips were just so fabulous” – Roxy Robinson, Festival of Sky Director

Send The Lips out to strut their stuff in a local green field, town centre or space of your choosing! The Lips come equipped with portable speakers which allow them to roam freely, serenading unsuspecting passers-by, creating celebratory commotion and delighting all who encounter them.

Floating at 3M high, The Lips sing out above the heads of audiences. During the day they wear a pop of red lipstick, making them hard to miss in a crowd. At night they're even more spectacular, using creative lighting technology to switch between a dazzling range of illuminated colours.
